A Precious Document.

The following letter was found in the Streets of Columbia immediately after the army of General Sherman had left.
The document is still preserved, and can be shown and substantiated if any body desires. We are indebted to a distinguished lady of this city for a copy, sent with a request for publication. We can add nothing in the way of comment on such a document.
It speaks for itself:

CAMP NEAR CAMDEN, S. C., Feb. 26, '65.

My DEAR WIFE—I have no time for particulars. We have had a glorious time in this State. Unrestricted license to burn and plunder was the order of the day. The chivalry have been stript of most of their valuables. Gold watches, silver pitchers, cups, spoons, forks, &c., are as common in camp as blackberries. The terms of plunder are as follows: The valuables procured are estimated by companies. Each company is required to exhibit the result of its operations at any given place—one-fifth and first choice falls to the share of the commander-in-chief and staff, one-fifth to the corps commanders and staff, one-fifth to the field officers of regiments, and two fifths to the company.

Officers are not allowed to join in these expeditions without disguising themselves as privates. One of our corps commanders borrowed a suit of rough clothes from one of my men and was successful in this place. He got a large quantity of silver (among other things an old time silver milk pitcher) and a very fine gold watch, from a Mr. De Saussure at this place. De Saussure is one of the F. F. V.'s of S.
C., and was made to fork out liberally.
Officers over the rank of captain are not made to put their plunder in the estimate for general distribution. This is very unfair, and for that reason, in order to protect themselves, subordinate officers and privates keep back every thing that they can carry about their persons, such as rings, earrings, breast-pins, &c., of which, if I ever live to get home, I have about a quart I am not joking—I have at least a quart of jewelry for you and all the girls—and some No. 1 diamond rings and pins among them. General Sherman has silver and gold enough to start a bank. His share in gold watches and chains alone, at Columbia, was two hundred and seventy-five (275).
But I said I could not go into particulars. All the general officers, and many besides, have valuables of every description down to embroidered ladies' pocket handkerchiefs. (I have my share of them too.) We took gold and silver enough from the d—d rebels to have redeemed their infernal currency twice over. This (the currency) whenever we came across it, we burned, as we considered it utterly worthless.

I wish all the jewelry this army has could be carried to the 'Old Bay State.' It would deck her out in glorious style but, alas! it will be scattered all over the North and Middle States. The d—d niggers, as a general rule, prefer to stay at home—particularly after they found out that we only wanted the able-bodied men, (and, to tell you the truth, the youngest and best looking women.) Sometimes we took off whole families and plantations of niggers, by way of repaying the secessionists. But the useless part of these we soon managed to lose —sometimes in crossing rivers—sometimes by other ways.

I shall write to you again from Wilmington, Goldsboro, or some other place in North Carolina. The order to march has arrived, and I must close hurriedly. Love to grandmother and aunt Charlotte. Take care of yourself! Don't show this letter out of the family.

Your affectionate husband, THOMAS J. MYERS, Lieut., &c.
P. S.—I will send this by the first flag of truce to be mailed, unless I have an opportunity of sending it to Hilton Head. Tell Sallie I am saving a pearl bracelet and earrings for her.
But Lambert got the necklace and breast-pin of the same set. I am trying to trade him out of them. These were taken from the 'Misses Jamison, daughters of the President of the South Carolina Secession Convention.
We found these on our trip through Georgia.

This letter was addressed to "Mrs.
Thos. J. Myers, Boston, Mass."

The Billiard Tournament which begins at the Phoenix Hotel in this city next Tuesday, and extends through the week, will be a grand affair among the Knights of the Cue. Phelan, Dion, Tieman, McDevitt, and other celebrities will, we understand, be in attendance. The ladies are expected to grace the occasion with their presence.—Lex.
Gazette.

AFTER MERIDIAN.

AN AMUSING DESCRIPTION OF A MIS-SISSIPPI RAILROAD STATION. — Some writer gives the following account of a hotel which we believe to be unparalleled on the face of the globe in the wretchedness of its accommodations.
Having been there, and "seen the elephant" with our personal optics, we can testify to the fact that there is more truth than poetry in the description. Those who are in the habit of enjoying the luxurious accommodations of the Rankin House, in this city, can appreciate the miserable contrast afforded by the Meridian concern:

A pleasant railroad station is Meridian, Mississippi. The Selma (Ala.) Messenger says of it: "A gentleman who had some experience in stopping over at Meridian during the war, and whose business called him to Mississippi, was expatiating to Gen. Johnston upon the discomforts of an apprehended stoppage there. 'O,' replied the general, 'Meridian has improved.' The Hotel has been burnt down.' Upon this text a writer in another southern journal humorously descants as follows:

"Who that ever traveled during the war through Meridian does not remember that hotel? The rush of travelers from the cars to the door would be met by the gentlemanly proprietor with 'Walk in, gentlemen, walk in.'
'Give me a private room,' would be demanded of fifty speculators and commissionaries with stuffed carpet bags who were distrustful of their neighbors.
'Certainly,' would be the invariable reply, and No. 49 would be chalked on the baggage. At night such a scene, when all the proprietors of private apartments would meet together in the garret, which was No. 49.
There was very good feed at the hotel, at least the insects thought so, for they assembled from every quarter to feed on the travelers. A distinguished Confederate general said that his plan for destroying Grant's army was to let them take Vicksburg and Jackson, and those of them that survived the trip on the railroad to Meridian (which was always killing some one) would starve to death at that delectable place. Dodgers, tanbark coffee and riled masses of trichinae were diversified with haw pie, squirrel tart and sour molasses, when such distinguished visitors as D. V., of West Baton Rouge, came along, and would not be satisfied with less.

"Chimberly whiskey, which, although maniac in its tendency destroyed trichinae in the system and made a man oblivious to the biting of bugs, could be had for its weight in manure.
And if you did not like the accommodations afforded by No. 49 you could lie down, (no one ever slept except the dead in that town) in the string of dilapidated cars that formed the city.
'It is said that Meridian was humanely selected by the authorities as the place to which car loads of hopelessly sick Confederates were sent to die, as they could leave the world with less regret from that spot than any other in the Confederacy. Good bye, Meridian. May we have three score years and ten and never gaze upon your red hills, black-jacks, and yellow rats again."

Major Hibler sold on November 1st a farm of one hundred and eighty-five acres, ten miles from town near Russellville pike, the property of Wm.
Nutter, one-third in hand, balance in one and two years—poor improvements—at one hundred dollars per acre. Forty fat hogs, seven dollars per hundred. A good many fine horses and mares from eighty to one hundred and seventy-five dollars per head.
Young cattle and milch cows sold well.
Corn sold for two dollars and twenty-five cents per shock in the field. One hundred bushels of wheat brought two dollars and thirty-three cents per bushel.—Lexington Gazette.

William A. Francis, treasurer of the Montana mining and discovery company committed suicide at his house in west Nineteenth street New York on Friday, by cutting his throat with a razor. In an attempt to prevent the deed, his wife was severely cut, and is in a precarious condition. The deces-ed had formerly been an inmate of a lunatic asylum.

FIRE IN CHRISTIAN COUNTY.—On Friday morning last the large tobacco stemmery of Dr. J. A. Wheeler, six miles from Hopkinsville on the Clarke-ville road, was destroyed by fire. There was in it at the time about 30,000 pounds of tobacco of the new crop, and all the agricultural implements of the plantation. Dr. Wheeler estimates his loss at from $8,000 to $10,000, upon which there was no insurance.

TOLEDO, O., Nov. 4.—A horrible

HOMELESS, FRIENDLESS, INSANE.—A being was brought to the Jefferson Market Police Court yesterday whose appearance was such as to arouse the liveliest feelings of sympathy in all who saw her. The prisoner had been picked up on the street by an officer, who, deeming her a fit subject for the consideration of the legal authorities, had brought her before Justice Led-with. The prisoner was a female of apparently middle age, but years of exposure, a life in the streets, destitute of the care of friends and protectors, had made her face wan and had seared her forehead with wrinkles as deep as those of the far advanced in years.
Her appearance was wretched and pitiable in the extreme, and the fantastic manner in which she was garb-ed would of itself have satisfied one that with her reason was wanting.— About her nether limbs was wrapped a mass of dirty rags, and over them hung a skirt of draggled, torn bagging.
She wore tightly buttoned around her a patched old jacket, but the absence of buttons in two or three places disclosed beneath a number of vests and jackets in every stage of dilapidation and of all colors. These were set off here and there by old artificial flowers and pieces of metal that jingled as she walked. On her head she wore a faded old white beaver hat, with an enormous black band, and wound with bits of tin and brass. In the band was stuck all around a row of false flowers. Her long hair, of a sandy color, hung all about uncombed and tangled; and her eyes, gray and small glistered restlessly and nervously.— Her jaws worked incessantly, as she muttered incoherently or masticated a huge quid of tobacco, the juice of which discolored her teeth, lips and even her chin. On her fingers, which she held close to the fire, about which she hovered shivering, as soon as she came into the court, were a number of rings, formed of cunningly twisted bits of wire. Soon she inserted her hand in a pocket close to the bottom of her canvas skirt, whence she drew forth a handful of cigar stubs and bits of tobacco, and filled her mouth with them. Replies failed to elicit her name or the place of her abode. She was crazy—a raving, imbecile maniac.
She sat crooning, and muttering and shivering over the fire, now and then looking up and around her with a fierce, angry stare. She was sent to the Commissioners of Public Charities and Correction.—N. Y. Herald, 5th.

BURIAL OF GEN. HANSON.

The mournful ceremonies of the interment of the remains of Gen. Roger W. Hanson, at Lexington last Sunday, were attended by an immense concourse of the people. It is estimated that about fourteen thousand were present on the occasion, to do honor to Kentucky's noble and lamented son. It was the spontaneous tribute of a chivalrous people to one of their gallant dead, and the scene must have been deeply grateful to the bereaved heart of the widow.

Gen. Hanson was gifted with a genius and tact that had won for him a national reputation as an orator and statesman; and on the tented field, his skill and courage gave him rank among the best and bravest of an army of heroic men. Devoted to principle, he hastened to give his sword to the cause he thought was right—and fell at Murfreesboro, baptizing his faith in his blood.

Elder J. Desha Pickett, formerly chaplain Gen. Hanson's brigade, delivered an appropriate, eloquent and most touching funeral oration, which we will publish in full next week.

Order reigned throughout the day, and nothing occurred to offend the most sensitive, or to interrupt unpleasantly the mournful rites.

About the meanest specimen of military spite we have seen lately is shown in an order from Gen. Thomas, prohibiting any military display on the part of those who attended Gen. Hanson's funeral. Nothing of the kind was intended, and the order was so utterly unnecessary that it looks like an intentional insult.

In the case of the Baltimore Police Commissioners, Judge Bartol has rendered a decision affirming the power of Gov. Swann to remove the old board for official misconduct. The new Commissioners have entered up, on their duties.

MEXICAN AFFAIRS.

The Herald's Paris correspondent says of the insanity of the Empress Carlotta: The hallucination was evidenced by her insisting that she was surrounded by Mexican and other enemies who sought to take her life, so she absolutely refused to quit the Vatican. The Pope treated her with much kindness, inviting foreign ladies of distinction to remain with her during the night, the Empress being accommodated in the palace, contrary to rule and precedent.

The following comes from the city of Mexico, through Liberal channels: "The neighborhood of the city and the country generally is overrun with bands of guerrillas, professedly liberals but in practice bandits and cut throats. A band under one Antonio Perez, took possession, last month, of Apam, a village 50 miles from the capital, sacked the houses, carried off some of the inhabitants for ransom, and finished by violating the best women of the town in the public square under the direction of their leader.

New York, Nov. 13.—The Herald's City of Mexico correspondent says Maximilian's abdication was unknown until he was almost ready to start. On the road he met Gen. Castelnau, but only made a passing salute and would not admit of a conference. Later it was thought he would return to the capital, but in that case Marshal Bazaine had intended to send him under a guard to Vera Cruz.

Castelnau was being treated very cavalierly by Bazaine, who is busy making new contracts for army supplies and for a length of time which does not look to a speedy departure of the troops. As soon as Maximilian is known to have left the country Bazaine will declare himself dictator.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—The best posted people in Washington are of opinion that the present negotiations will end in the United States establishing a protectorate over the Mexican territory.

The Downieville Gold Mining Company, whose office was at 70 Wall street, New York was found to have failed and a number of stock brokers were badly victimized. The market was found flooded with their worthless shares. A civil suit was immediately commenced against Messrs. Riley and Wheeler, who appear to have been connected with the company, on the charge of obtaining money under false pretences, and they were lodged in the county jail, on 12th, in default of $13,000 bail each.

THE PARKISON MURDER TRIAL.

In May last, Addison Parkison, a highly respected citizen of Jasper county, who resided about eight miles from Rensselaer, discovered that his daughter, a lovely girl of fifteen summers, had been seduced by a young man named Guthridge, his (Parkison's) own cousin, who resided upon an adjoining farm. Parkison had been absent from home for some time. He returned late the night previous to the day on which the killing took place. His wife broke to him, that night, the startling and terrible fact of his daughter's ruin and the disgrace of his household. The next afternoon Parkison went to the residence of Guthridge, who lived with a brother, found him in the stable, charged his perfidy upon him, and shot him dead on the spot.

Parkison was arrested, and shortly after indicted for murder in the first degree. On a change of venue the case was taken to Tippecanoe county, where he has been on trial for the past eleven days, the case exciting quite as much interest in that community as the Newland case did in this.

From Mr. John Bentley, conductor on the L. N. A. & C. R. R., we learn that the case was submitted to the jury on Thursday night. When the court opened at 9 o'clock yesterday morning, the jury returned a verdict acquitting Parkison. When the verdict was rendered, the prisoner was cordially greeted by hundreds of people that had crowded the court-house, and the scene that ensued is described to us as most affecting.

Great legal ability was shown by the attorneys engaged in the prosecution. But the verdict of the jury justified the father in avenging the ruin of his daughter by killing her seducer. The verdict was a righteous one, and is another warning to the seducer that he may expect dreadful and sure punishment to follow his crime.—New Albany Ledger.

[From the Lex. Observer & Reporter.]

Mr. Jonathan Taylor, residing near Colbyville, sold 60 acres of land a few days since at 130 dollars per acre. Mrs. E. Jackson was the purchaser; James P. Gary sold 60 acres lying near Winchester to John Duck, Esq., at 130 dollars, and 76 acres at 100 dollars per acre.

Philip Kidd, Auctioneer, makes the following general report of the stock market of Monday: Holders demanded 5 1/2 to 6 cents for yearlings and two year old steers. He reports the sale of a yoke of oxen, averaging sixteen hundred pounds, at 5 dollars 25 cents per hundred; 18 head of yearlings, second grade, at 5 dollars 25 cents per 100 lbs.; two year olds, smooth and in good order, 5 1/2 cents at the outside; beef cattle of light grade, 4 to 5 cents. There were a great many horses on the market, and brought low figures, averaging from 75 to 100 dollars per head.

Much feeling is exhibited throughout the State of Georgia on the subject of repudiation. It is thought an effort will be made on the meeting of the Legislature in November to relieve the people from paying of cert-in debts contracted prior and during the late war. The plea urged for repudiation is the loss of slaves and the failure of the crops. The amount of property returned in the State for 1866 is $207,000,000; in 1860, $620,322,777. Loss to the State over $463,000,000.

The presiding mistress of a boarding house "hoped the tea was good." "Very good, indeed, madam," was the general reply; but Jones, between truth and politeness, observed "that the tea was excellent, but the water was smoked."

The President has ceased granting pardons to ex-rebels, for reasons, it is stated, of a political character, resulting from the recent elections.

It is again intimated that Russia has perfected an alliance with Prussia.

Governor Smith, of Montana, arrived at Helena on the 13th of Oct., and had a public reception.

It is considered more than probable in Washington that United States troops will soon enter Mexico.

The remains of Simeon Draper were taken to New York on Friday, and after an imposing and solemn ceremonial over them in the Church of St. Bartholomew they were conveyed to Trinity Cemetery, in Carmansville, and deposited in the family vault.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—The grand jury has made a presentment in the case of J. A. Dunham alias Sanford Conover, for perjury in the sworn evidence given by him as a witness on the assassination trials, and before the House Judiciary committee.

NASHVILLE, Nov. 11.—Another attempt was made last night to throw the Nashville bound train from Louisville off the track at the same locality. Rails had been piled on the track apparently by inexperienced operators. The locomotive dashed through and over the obstructions without damage.

Dr. Mary Walker, one of the latest American bloomers, is now in England preaching reforms in woman's dress and political position. At the Manchester social meeting she said woman was over worked and her vitality exhausted in carrying around a dry goods store.

SERIOUS BURNING.—Sunday afternoon a negro girl aged 14 years, living with Mr. Stilwell, of this city, imprudently set a can of coal oil on the cooking stove, the heat from which melted off the bottom of the can and the oil spread over the stove. At the moment the oil ignited, the girl entered the room and her clothes took fire and were almost entirely consumed, burning her so badly that no hopes are entertained of her recovery.

The complaint is becoming epidemic, and we and our friend Craddock, of the Paris Kentuckian, are casting about for a preventive. Col. Ross, of the Maysville Bulletin, the junior editor of the Henderson Reporter, and several others of our brethren of the quill, have recently taken partners for life. The infection is spreading with a rapidity that threatens the total extinction of single blessedness, and nothing short of a ring, and a minister, and a double bedstead appears to have any effect on the victims. We sympathize heartily with them, and wish them a long life of happiness and content, no lack of small caps in the case, and prompt paying subscribers to meet their increased expenses, and that the profits of their weekly issues may be more than sufficient to pay for their annual ones.

Some of our farmers are complaining of serious injury to their stone fences from hunters tearing them open to get at the rabbits that have sought refuge in them. This is a wanton destruction of property, although we presume it is thoughtlessly committed in the excitement of the hunt. In many cases the damage done will cost the farmer far more than the value of the game. Hunters should carefully avoid giving offence in this manner, or they will cause all the land in the country to be "posted," as the only protection of the owners.

The first hop of the season occurred at the Rankin House last Friday. A number of the belles and beaux of this city were in attendance, besides a bevy of ladies from Covington, and several visitors of both sexes from other points. Under the inspiring influence of lively music, bright eyes beamed more brightly still, and graceful forms flitted through the sinuous course of the dance. An elegant supper, prepared in the superior style for which the Rankin House is noted, was set forth at "the noon of night," and after regaling themselves, the party returned to the ball room, and kept up the gay revel for some hours longer. This is, we hope, the inauguration of a series of similar occasions with which our Terpsichorean devotees are to be delighted during the cold season.

The Rev. W. Pope Yeatman, general agent of the "Kentucky Baptist Association for the Relief of the South," accompanied by Rev. S. L. Helm, Secretary of the Association, visited our city on Monday last. The former gentleman delivered a very able and eloquent address to a large crowd assembled in the courthouse, in which he set forth the extreme destitution of a great number of the people of the South, and made a most impressive appeal for contributions to their relief. He was followed in a few appropriate remarks by Mr. Helm, during which the people came forward and contributed $263 for the purpose of purchasing sacks and other articles for conveying contributions of grain, &c., to points where the destitution exists.

From the disposition and feeling displayed on the occasion, we feel justified in predicting that our citizens will not be backward in "giving food to the hungry and clothing to the naked."

Gen. Lucius Desha, T. T. Garnett and John McKee have consented to act as the central and supervising committee, and have appointed district committees to solicit contributions, and see to conveying the same to the most convenient railroad station. The following is a list of the committees:

1st district. J. T. Martin, John H. Dills, Wm. Winston and Capt. A. Lair.
2d district. Richard Robertson, Wm. Burns and Rev. Mr. Lancaster.
3d district. Col. Duncan Harding, Charles Brammel and Reid Garrett.
4th district. Sanford Duncan, John B. Hamilton, Louis Savage and Henry Haviland.
5th district. Thos. Boyd, Newton L. Hume, Rev. Jos. Barbee and Mortimer Martin.
6th district. Allen Kendall, Pollard McKenney and G. Kimman.
7th district. Wm. Vanderrin, Saml. Levesque and Alfred Day.
8th district. Jos. Shawhan, Wesley Sparks and David Grimes.

The central committee desire us to say that they hope that each one who is named on the district committees, will consent to act without delay, and any information desired will be furnished upon application to them. Arrangements have been made with I. T. Martin for the storage of all articles delivered in this city.

The terrible sufferings of the people of Northern Georgia, and other portions of the South, appeal most strongly to the feelings of the charitable everywhere, and we earnestly hope that our citizens will answer their plea for relief with a prompt and liberal generosity that will do honor to their humanity. In such a cause their contributions will win the approving smile of God, and carry hope to many a despairing home.

HEAVY DRAUGHT.—R. E. Brooking, of Mayslick, is a No. 1 teamster, and has four No. 1 draught horses. He recently hauled from this city to Paris, on his wagon, 33 barrels of salt, averaging 410 lbs., together with 470 lbs. of merchandise, making the freight weigh 14,000 lbs. exclusive of the wagon, which is a heavy one. His horses are of medium size, but understand the inexorable logic of "a long pull, a strong pull, and a pull altogether." The team that "flaxes" this one will have to "get up and dust."—Maysville Bulletin.

A widow lady—one of the wealthiest and most respected in our county—became deeply interested in the condition of the suffering poor in the South. She has, through her own exertions, obtained 4,000 bushels of corn, made every arrangement to transport it to Georgia, and will distribute it under her own supervision, going South for that express purpose.—Lexington Observer & Reporter.

A terrible occurrence is said to have taken place near Quincy, Illinois. Mrs. McClure was supposed to have died on Sunday last, and on Monday was buried in a vault belonging to the family. On Wednesday groans were heard from the vault by the children of the buried woman and an old woman who was with them. Upon learning this the husband and neighbors repaired to the vault, broke open the door, opened the coffin and found the woman alive. She had torn her hair and wounded her fingers in vain efforts to escape from her narrow prison. She was taken home, and is said to be now in a fair way to recover.

FARM FOR SALE
IN CLARK CO., KY.

I WILL SELL, on THURSDAY, the 22nd day of November, 1886, at auction (if not sold at private sale) the property known as the Fiddling Combs Mill and Distillery! the valuable FARM, containing about 400 acres of GOOD LAND, with all the necessary improvements, including a

NO. 1 FRAME RESIDENCE.
Also, on the same place are one or two good tenement houses, which make the place very susceptible of division, and which I propose to divide the Farm with such buildings as may be on the tracts of land so divided.

There are also situated on this property a NO. 1 STEAM AND WATER MILL, AND A NO. 1 DISTILLERY.

For making the old-fashioned copper whisky, which I propose to sell with a portion of the buildings and land, or altogether if preferred.

Persons desiring to invest in this kind of property, cannot find a better location for mill and distilling, as all the whisky made at the distillery is sold at home at a good price.

The mill has a good neighborhood custom. I will sell this desirable property at private sale, in such quantities as may be agreed on between myself and the purchaser, if desired to do so before the day of sale above mentioned.

For terms, &c., apply to me at Covington, Ky., or to Samuel G. Stewart, near Winchester, who will show the property.

Poland's magic bilious Powders This preparation is the discovery of the Rev. J. W. Poland, formerly the pastor of the Baptist Church in Godstown, N. H., and a man dearly beloved by that denomination throughout New England. He was obliged to leave the pulpit and study medicine to save his own life, and his Magic Powders are one of the most wonderful discoveries of modern times. It is The Great Liver and Bilious Remedy, which completely throws in the shade all other discoveries in medicine; and it affords him much gratification that they receive the unanimous approbation of all who have tested them. The Magic Bilious Powders are a Positive Cure for Liver complaint in its most aggravated form, and an immediate corrector of all Bilious Derangements! Excellent for Headache, Constipation, Pimples, Blisters, a Swallow Skin, Drowsiness, Dizziness, Heartburn, Palpitation, and a most wonderful Cure and preventive of Fever and Ague!

(We advise all who are troubled with this fearful malady to always keep the Powders on hand ready for immediate use.) Here are a few important particulars—1st.—They are the Great Specific for all Bilious Affections.
2d.—They are the only known remedy that will cure Liver Complaint.
3d.—They are the only known remedy that will cure Constipation.
4th.—The Powders are so thorough in their operation that one package will be all that the majority of those using them will require to effect a cure.
5th.—They are a mild and pleasant yet the most effectual cathartic known.
6th.—They are the cheapest and best medicine extant, as they can be sent by mail to any part of the globe for the price, 30 cents.

DYSPEPSIA CURE!
THIS great remedy for all diseases of the STOMACH is the discovery of the inventor of Cod's valuable Cough Balsam, while experimenting for his own health. It cured cramp in the Stomach for him which had before yielded, to nothing but cholera-form.

The almost daily testimony from various parts of the country encourage us to believe there is no disease caused by a disordered stomach it will not speedily cure.

Physicians endorse and Use it! Ministers give testimony of its efficacy! And from all directions we receive tidings of cures performed. Dyspepsia is sure to cure! Heartburn—one dose will cure! Sick-head ache—it has cured in hundreds of cases! Headache and Dizziness—it stops in thirty minutes! Acidity of the Stomach—it corrects at once! Rising of the food—It stops immediately. Distress after Eating—one dose will remove! Cholera, Morbus—Rapidly yields to a few doses. Bad Breath—Will be changed with half a bottle.

It is Perfectly Harmless!
Its unprecedented success is owing to the fact that it cures by assisting nature to reassert her way in the system. Nearly every dealer in the United States sells it at ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

Poetical Selections.
THE SLEIGH RIDE, &c.
Sweet Susie Brown! my pretty one!
I'm sure you must remember—If not for love, at least for fun—The sleigh ride in December; When all the belles and all the beaux, In spite of frost would go forth, To squeeze beneath the buffaloes Each other's hands, &c.

'Tis very singular and queer,
Of all the male devices, Love's flame should outdo so bright and clear On angels' full of love;
And yet we know its flame, indeed, Most brilliantly did glow forth, When fanned behind a flying steed, Hid under furs, &c.

I'm sure you find the village inn,
The supper and the revel—How in the general din and din Love shot his arrow level;
And don't forget how gallant Cap Once chased you in the battery; You kissed his lips—you know you did—
And he kissed yours, etc.

And when the forfeits were all paid, How one dear girl resisted, Until the other ladies said, A prize they all detested "Desist," she cried—the darling Ann—Her modesty to show forth;
"I'll never yield to mortal man My virgin lips," &c.

The wintry winds, the homeward way, Blow chilly in our faces;
But underneath our furs we lay All snugly in our places, One girl upon the forward seat—
The pretty Maggy Satterlee—Declared Bill B—had called her "sweet," And pinched her cheek, etc.

Another underneath her robe—[The buffaloes, not the dresses.] Fair Patience with bold Clarence C—Detected in carresses, Sprang up with angry, blushing face,
Her modesty to show forth,
But showed her curls all out of place, Her collar gone, etc.

And then the parting at the door!
Its tender mutual blisses!
Sweet lips from their abundant store, Gave to the poor in kisses!
The parting word, the long embrace—Cupid's most dangerous witchery—Brought fire to many a boy's face, And raised sweet hopes, etc.

Dear Susie Brown! save you and I,
Of all that load of merriment, No other pair is left to try Love's latest, best experiment;
And when the coming snows shall spread,
And mutual hopes shall glow forth, May Hymen bless our nuptial bed, Increase our joys, &c.

equals any other in efficiency, and far sur-of simplicity, durability, cheapness, noise-ceived the most marked commendations ever given any one machine, no less than twenty-five first premiums during the fall of 1864, besides the Gold Medal at the American Institute New York. It is just now being introduced in the West. I freely extend to it the same responsibility I exercise over my other business, which with my friends at least, will be sufficient guarantee for them to accept my choice of machines as their own perplexity of an extended investigation.

THE GUIDE TO HEALTH AND BEAUTY.
[Just Published.]
IT teaches how to remove Tan, Freckles, Pimples, Blotches, Moth Patches, Sallowness, Eruptions, and all impurities of the skin; how to enamel the skin, leaving it white and clear as alabaster; how to produce the fullest development of the female form (as practised by the French), causing the bust to grow round and full, and if the form has been lost by peddling, lacing, or maternity, restoring it to more than its original fullness, firmness, and beauty. It teaches how to reduce in size the hands and feet, produce corpulency or the reverse; remove superfluous hair; cure corns, bunions, warts, and moles; remove various eye troubles, such as, catarrh, dyspepsia, Nervous debility, &c., how to fascinate and gain the love and affection of any person you may choose, together with other useful and valuable information. No young Lady or gentleman should fail to send their address to the underigned and receive by return mail a copy of this valuable work in sealed envelope free of charge. Address

THE most valuable and perfect prepara-ful pearl-like tint, that is only found in youth. It quickly removes tan, freckles, pimples, blotches, moth patches, sallowness, eruptions, and all impurities of the skin, kindly healing the same, leaving the skin white and clear as alabaster. Its use cannot be detected by the closest scrutiny, and being a vegetable preparation is perfectly harmless. It is the only article of the kind used by the French, and is considered by the Parisians as indispensable to a perfect toilet. Upwards of 30,000 bottles were sold during the past year, a sufficient guarantee of its efficacy. Price only 75 cents. Sent by
